

Joseph L. Parkin Memorial Lecture on Aging

Health Care for Old People: Who is going to care for us and how?

Tuesday,
May 29, 2012

Free and open to the public

Lecture:

4:00- 5:00pm

Reception:

5:00 - 5:30pm

The Alson E. Braley
Conference Room,
01136 PFP, UIHC

These events are made possible by a gift from the Retirement Research Foundation in memory of Joseph Parkin and hosted by The University of Iowa Center on Aging and the UI Roy J. and Lucille A. Carver College of Medicine. For more information, please contact Laura Scheetz, Center on Aging, at 319-384-4221, or laura-scheetz@uiowa.edu

Presented by: David B. Reuben, MD
Director of Geriatric Medicine
UCLA Center for Health Sciences

As a geriatrician, Dr. Reuben maintains a clinical primary care practice of frail older persons, attending on both inpatient and geriatric psychiatry units at UCLA. Reuben's current research include redesigning the office visit to improve healthcare quality and measuring how older adults function. He is lead author of the widely distributed book Geriatrics at Your Fingertips.

